

WAVE System Specifications

Pullcord Station

This pullcord station enables residents to call for help easily. As soon as the cord is pulled, a message is instantly broadcast letting caregivers know the exact location of the emergency. The pullcord station must be manually reset. A record of when the pullcord was activated and when it was reset is maintained by the WAVE system.

Key Features

- No wiring needed
- No programming needed